Accident.—Last Sunday we noticed a drunken man galloping his horse through town, and when nearly down to the bridge across Patoka he tumbled off, and one of his feet hung in his saddle stirrup. Fortunately his horse was a gentle one, and stopped as soon as his rider fell, thus avoiding any serious damage above a complete dusting of the man's clothes. Moral.—Drunkards should be careful what kind of horses they ride, and how they ride them, when they have too much aboard to set steady.

Attention is directed to the "Notice to Voters," in another column of to-day's paper. Those interested will find it to their advantage to attend to this matter.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.

Chubb Bros. Bankers, suspended payment. Their liabilities are reported to Washington depositors to be $150,000, and their assets ample. They continue their collections and commission business, hoping at an early day to arrange with their creditors. They make no assignment.

The joint commission for running the boundary between the United States and Texas will not commence operations till spring.

The Secretary of the Navy this morning received a dispatch stating that the Niagara, with the captured Africans, left Charleston last night for Africa.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.

Gen. Walker went out yesterday in the Star of the West, accompanied by Col. Von Walmer, who is said to be a distinguished filibuster. The Herald states that they are bound for Nicaragua, but will remain at Panama for the present to mature their plans for another foray in that country. Small arms and ammunition, it is said were sent out in the small canal steamers which left this port a few days ago. Men and material of war also went out in the steamer Hermann, which sailed a few weeks ago for the Pacific.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.

Advices from St. Domingo have been received, bringing some additional particulars of the recent revolution. Gen. Santana marched to Santiago on the 1st of September and took possession of the fort. Valverde, together with the Collector of Santiago and others, fled to Monte Christo, where they were to embark for Turks Island; there was consequently no responsible government at St. Domingo. The merchants had closed their stores, the paper money in circulation had become worthless, and none knew how to buy or sell, or what the next practical move was to be.

BOSTON, Sept. 20.

The second examination of the sloop Echo will take place to-morrow. It is rumored that the defence of Townsend will be that he was not Captain, and that the latter was a Spaniard who is now in prison at Charleston, and that he (Townsend) was a mere passenger.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.

Leavenworth d-tes of the 15th, per U. S. Express to Booneville 17th, say that a number of officers from Utah have arrived, among them Col. Alexander and Lewis Groves and Manadier, of the 19th Infantry, and Capt. Macey, of the 5th.

There is no news of importance. The general impression seems to be that further trouble with the Mormons may be expected—that the difficulties have only been postponed, not settled.

A train of twenty wagons leaves here to-morrow for Pike's Peak, and Wm. H. Russell will start a train of forty wagons in a few days. Gentlemen are here from Leavenworth and Wyandott filling out for that place.

THE GREAT WONDER

OF THE

Nineteenth Century.

Prof. Wood's

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

The St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat says: B. - low, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certifies as guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor needless puffery from the press:

BATH, MAINE, Jan. 20, 1858.

Professor O. J. Wood & Co.:

GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. I used three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty-two years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statement. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly, yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to me the afflicted such a treasure.

FIRLEY J. DICKSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox church Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.

Brookfield, January 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly,
J. K. BRAGG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds 4 a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle.
